CIRCA 1735
Preservation. Education. Inspiration.

The Board of Directors of the
FOUNDATION FOR HISTORIC CHRIST CHURCH
HEREBY RESOLVES THAT

WHEREAS, it has been said in many ways that great and wondrous things come in small packages, and

WHEREAS, our honoree while diminutive in stature, has made capacious contributions to the Foundation for Historic Christ Church in numerous and diverse roles for more than two decades, and

WHEREAS, these roles have included being a docent, a member of the Volunteer Council, including a term as its Chairperson, and

WHEREAS, our honoree has been a member, and often served in leadership roles, of several committees including Nominating, Governance, Strategic Planning, Cultural Resources Management, and

WHEREAS, our honoree has shared an avocational passion for gardening with Historic Christ Church as a tender of Christ Church day lilies and the planters in the 50th anniversary courtyard, as Chairperson of the Horticulture Committee, as liaison to the Restoration Committee of the Garden Club of Virginia, and

WHEREAS, our honoree, throughout a distinguished, continuous 20 year history of volunteer service, has endeavored to advance the Foundation's mission of Preservation, Education and Inspiration by undertaking all such tasks and leadership positions – great and small – with which she was confronted in her measured, matter-of-fact, determined manner,

IT IS RESOLVED, by the action of the Board of Directors of the Foundation for Historic Christ Church, that Mary K. Hoerneman shall receive the Louise Belote Dawe Award in recognition of her dedication and service to Christ Church and the Foundation.

Therefore,

The Louise Belote Dawe Award is hereby bestowed on

Mary K. Hoerneman

Done this 25th day of June, 2020.
